Jemma: "Here I'm sat with Debbie. Hi Debbie"

Debbie: "Hi."

Jemma: "What's your training programme called and where is it based?"

Debbie: "It's the Prince's Trust Team Programme and we're based at Three Ways which used to be the old riding school which is just off Nursery Lane."

Jemma: "Here I'm sat with Ashley which is one of the learners from Prince's Trust. Hi."

Ashley: "Hiya."

Jemma: "How long have you been on this training course?"

Ashley: "About six weeks."

Jemma: "Do you get like money for attending the course like a bursary or a bus pass?"

Ashley: "Yeah. And em I get £40 this month. But other people, if you're younger than 19 you can get, I think you get a bit more, depending on your circumstance."

Jemma: "Yeah? Erm what have you learned since you started here?"

Ashley: "Definitely it's... I've definitely learned how to cope with things a lot better. And it's good at... like it helps you learn to attend things like you know, be punctual about things and stuff."

Jemma: "Yeah. What part of this training course do you enjoy the most?"

Ashley: "The residential were good. Loads of activities and stuff."

Jemma: "Would you recommend Prince's Trust to other young people?"

Ashley: "Definitely. Go for it."

Jemma: "Thank you".

Jemma: "Here we're sat with another young person of Prince's Trust. Hi."

Taneesa: "Hello."

Jemma: "How long have you been on this training course?"

Taneesa: "six weeks."

Jemma: : "Do you get any like money or bus passes or free dinners?"

Taneesa: "I get a bursary that's £40 a week and I get a bus ticket off the tutor Will, and free school dinners."

Jemma: : "How do you travel to the course and is it easy to find?"

Taneesa: "Two buses from up hill and it wasn't at first but the tutors met us at bus station on the first day."

Jemma: : "What parts of the training course do you enjoy the most?"

Taneesa: "Err I enjoyed the residential."

Jemma: : "Why?"

Taneesa: "It was a different experience cos I've never been on one before. And we all come together more like a family than we did."

Jemma: : "Yeah. Would you recommend this course to other young people?"

Taneesa: "Yeah, definitely. Cos it's not like a usual course where you're sat in a classroom just writing. You do different things every day."

Jemma: : "So pretty hands on?"

Taneesa: "Yeah, hands on."
